

Other Info, Questions & Answers

Q: How long does a full keg of beer last?

A: Our units can maintain the coldest temperatures. We like to keep our beer at 30-32 degrees; However, the best aromatic temperature for beer consumption is 40-43 degrees. We at Kool Keg, Inc. agree that beer will keep longer than it will take you to drink. (Several months)

Q: How long does a 5# CO2 bottle last?

A: About 10 to 12 kegs maintaining a line pressure of 10psi.

Q: How heavy is a full keg of beer?

A: 150-160 pounds.

Keg draft beer information:

1 keg = 15½ gallons or 1984 fluid ounces, the equivalent of ½ barrel of beer.

1 keg equals 6¾ cases or 5½ 30 packs of 12 oz. cans.

Dimensions of Kool Kegs:

Base Series:

21 ½" wide X 52 ½" tall X 25" deep

PABC (Signature Series):

Homebrew Base Series

Ten models are currently available with a couple more up and coming. Each of the five models explained come in both the regular single faucet and the home brewer's series which can have up to four faucets and four 5 gallon kegs.

The Base Series is an all white unit with a chrome faucet, stainless steel drip pan and a white exterior lock.

The Axent Series is a white unit with oak trim on the door, brass or chrome faucet, drip pan and exterior lock.

The Delux Series is a white unit with wood paneled & trimmed door, brass faucet, drip pan and lock.

The Executive Series is an all wood paneled & trimmed unit. It has a brass faucet, name plate, drip pan and exterior lock. It comes with optional wine racks on either or both sides depending on placement in home. It makes a fine accent with other furniture.

The PABC (Portable Adult Beverage Center or Signature Series) is an all oak paneled & trimmed unit. It has all the bells & whistles one could imagine. Two, 5 pound CO2 bottles and a hand pump for large parties. It can even have a humidor attached for cigars and pipe tobacco.

The PABC liquor cabinet is an extremely fancy custom cabinet that sits on top and can be easily removed for transporting. The cabinet includes the following:

- Double tinted 1/4" glass doors that have the option of being glass etched with your design or one of ours.
- Interior lights with manual switch on top.
- Wine glass racks
- 8 wine glasses
- Two wine racks that each hold 4 bottles
- Two shelves, lower shelf tall enough for liquor bottles (twelve 1.75L) and upper shelf for wine glasses, mugs, shot glasses etc.
- CO2 bottles are hidden behind the cabinet, with access by a side door.

Advantages to Drinking Draft Beer:

Enjoying a draft beer is a luxury in itself. There are several advantages besides the love of a draft. There are no empty cans or bottles to make clutter. You make less trips to the beer store which is good with the rising cost of gas. Draft beer is cheaper to drink than cans or bottles, due to the fact that the breweries just clean and refill kegs.

They don't have to spend money on packaging and bottling.

Dollar savings of drinking draft beer vs. can beer. (price comparison taken locally 10/1/1999)

30 Pac of premium beer in 12oz cans = $15.49
 Keg of premium beer = $69.99 (15.5 gallons)
 Savings by drinking draft beer = $22.34 each keg.

All units are equipped with:

- Five year warranty on compressor / 1 year on parts.
- Exterior lock allows you to untap the keg and lock the door to secure beer dispensing.
- Kool Keg users manual
- Twin gauge CO2 regulator.
- 1.02 cubic foot of freezer space for mugs and pitchers.
- Drip pan
- Tap, faucet and all hoses.
- Bottle and faucet wrenches.
